Curriculum

The course follows the trimester pattern with 8 subjects per trimester

The PGDM program gives specialisation in finance, marketing and operation with 6-8 weeks of summer internship

The programme begins with two week induction program to familiarise student with the institute and programme

Industry Interaction

The institute conducted 45 guest lectures in year 2009-10

Indus Business School organises industry visit for the students once in every month for half day

A dedicated Corporate Resource Cell to forge ties with industry for student placement

Infrastructure

The campus is spread over one acre with facilities like convention centre, conference rooms, seminar hall, hostel, canteen and recreation facilities

The institute has only 185 titles, 7176 books and 99 journals (national and international) and has limited reference material thereby restricting student's learning beyond the classrooms
